"a superb bank finance lawyer with deep knowledge of the local market"

Chambers Global

Alan Sacks heads HFN's international practice. Alan arrived in Israel shortly after having qualified as a Solicitor in England, and since then has divided his practice between two main areas of corporate law and banking and finance.

In the area of M&A, Alan has been responsible for some of the largest transactions in Israel, including having advised on the acquisition or sale of Israel's major banks, industrial holding companies and cellular telephone operators. Most recently, Alan advised the sellers of the world's largest online poker site in an international transaction worth close to US $5 Billion.

Banking and Finance

Insolvency and Restructuring
Investment Banking
Mergers & Acquisitions
Private Clients, Trusts and Estates

In the Banking and Finance sector, Alan's cross-border expertise, as well as his familiarity with all aspects of banking regulation, have made him the leading practitioner in the international banking arena on all aspects of banking activity.

Alan has represented almost all of the major international financial institutions active in Israel. Alan has acted on numerous occasions for Citibank, HSBC, Deutsche Bank, Barclays Capital, RBS, Goldman Sachs, Credit Suisse and Ex-Im Bank, as well as Israel's major banks in their international financing transactions. Most recently, Alan represented the international lenders to ZIM Integrated Shipping Services Ltd in the largest debt rescheduling in Israel to date.
