Baruch Katzman specializes in commercial and civil litigation, representing international companies in commercial disputes before the entire range of courts, arbitration and mediation bodies, and various other committees and tribunals.

Baruch is in charge of complex litigation files, providing legal advice to top-tier international as well as local clients. Baruch also acts as an arbitrator in large commercial disputes.

In addition, Baruch acts for:

- > Leading multinational and domestic commercial companies, including: Sport Five (the biggest sports marketing company in the world), KLA, EDS, General Electric, CAE and others.
- > Israel entities including: one of the biggest investment houses in Israel, Channel 10 (one of Israel's leading television stations), Ben Gurion University, banks, Israel Football Association, Israel Basketball Association, a large chemical company as well as principal private individuals in the Israeli market.

Baruch has been involved in a number of complex and high-profile matters with including several precedent-setting decisions. Two notable rulings involved revisions of the tort law, one of which had been in place for 25 years relating to potential lost income in the event of death (the "Lost Years"). The second ruling was in regard to the cancellation of arbitration awards.
