

CV
Ronit Gidron Zemach

Personal Information:

Name: Attorney Ronit Gidron Zemach
Date of birth: February 4, 1978
Marital status: Married + 2
Address: 8 Golan Street, Ramat Hasharon
Tel.: 0524000466

Work Experience:

2007 onwards - The International Association of Jewish Lawyers and Jurists (RA) - CEO. Managing the Association, including working with the Registrar of Associations and other government offices, such as the Ministry of Justice, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and the secretariat of the association. Contents mainly refer to fighting anti-Semitism and Holocaust denial, promoting human rights and protection against racism and xenophobia, and various issues of international law. Work includes, inter alia, producing conferences and seminars, ongoing work vis-a-vis the United Nations in New York and the Human Rights Council in Geneva (including appearances), addressing issues on the agenda of the association by means of legal instruments. Work involves an explanatory aspect, and sometimes also diplomatic conduct. Most of the work is done in English.

2005-2007 - Goldfarb, Levy, Eran, Meiri, Tzafrir Co. Law Firm [Currently: Goldfarb Seligman & Co.] - Attorney at the Department of Communications and Media and in the Litigation Department. Work included negotiating with the Council for Cable and Satellite Broadcasting, HOT, YES and the TV channels. Providing counseling to customers and companies from various sectors regarding contents, information databases, copyrights and so on, as well as litigation tasks which included the preparation of court documents and their entailed documents, drafting agreements in English and Hebrew, preparation of expert opinions, taking part in negotiations, appearing before the court and pro bono activities.

2004-2005 - Gideon Fisher & Co. Law Firm - Attorney at the Commercial Department. Work included the preparation of agreements and expert opinions in English and Hebrew, foundation and liquidation of companies, preparation of tenders and the preparation of Bills in various areas.

2002-2003 - Baratz, Bar-Nathan, Horn & Co. Law Firm - Intern. Internship at the Litigation Department under the senior partner, (former) head of the department, Attorney Bar-Nathan. Work included preparing court documents, legal opinions and court appearances (between September and March).

2002 - The District Court in Tel Aviv - Intern. Internship under the Honorable Judge Strashnov. Work included preparation of legal opinions, attending civil and criminal hearings and drafting judgments (between March and September).

Education:

2003-2004 - LLM in Law from Fordham University in New York, general internship at Eshcol "International Business Law", with an emphasis on intellectual property.

2003 - Bar exams and certification.

1998-2002 - LLB in Law from the School of Law, the College of Management academic studies.

2001 - Mediation course at the "Neve Tzedek - Peaceable Dispute Resolution Ltd.".

1993-1996 - High School studies at Rothberg High School in Ramat Hasharon - majoring in Literature-French. Graduation summa cum laude in Literature 5-units, French 5-units and Advanced English 5-units.

Military Service:

1996-1998 - Intelligence Corps Manpower Detection and Organization NCO. Job entailed working with the public, frontal lectures, conducting interviews and adapting detected teenagers to the Intelligence Corps.

Public activity:

2005 onwards - activist in "Let the Animals Live" association.

1999 - onwards: "Yeladim –Fair Chance for Children" - production of an annual fun-day during Chanukah.

1998 - budgeting and producing the alumni reunion "30 years to Rothberg High School" in Ramat Hasharon.

1996 - Chairman of Ramat Hasharon Rothberg High School students council and a member of the City Youth Council.

1993-1995 - WIZO Ramat Hasharon - volunteer activity at a hostel for children.

Languages:

Hebrew - mother tongue

English- fluent. Full speech, reading and writing proficiency.

Computers:

Word, Excel and Internet searches.

Hobbies:

Professional sports, including competitions in Israel and abroad (marathons and triathlons), dance and quality time with family.